The Not So Hungry Games:

It's time for the 75th annual Hunger Games, but this years contestants are a little different. Led by the strictest teacher in the games, Ai Long, the three contestants get ready for the games. Yu Hua, a 19 year old girl from Shanghai plans to use her bow and arrow to win the games. He Kai Wen, a 20 year old boy from Taipei is very serious about his sword skills and claims winning is his life! Then there's Yang Like, who seems sleepy at first, and in fact doesn't want to participate in the competition at all. In the "Not So Hungry Games" Ai Long meets the contestants, learns about their skills, and helps pick out uniforms for the big battle.
