

Chinese 201 Tasks#1 Timed Speaking Practice

For this first task, we will brainstorm together and then practice by calling your partner in your team.

Task #1:

Setting: you are studying abroad in Taipei at the National Taiwan University.

Leave a voice message to your Chinese language partner, Jiā-Míng.

- Identify yourself first, and then ask him if he is free this afternoon at 5:00.
- You are inviting (treating) him to Starbucks to drink something; it is the one next to the North Gate of campus.
- You are meeting a friend, who graduated from Puget Sound and is visiting Taipei this month. You would like Jiā-Míng to meet him as well
- Ask Jiā-Míng to call you back as soon as possible.
